

Client: Harvest Picnic Foundation
Media outlet: Macedon Ranges Leader website
Date: 23 February 2011
Pg: N/A
Circulation: TBC

Hanging out for a Hanging Rock harvest picnic

Printer Friendly

Text size

A⁻ A⁺

LOCAL NEWS 23 FEB 11 @ 06:00AM | BY PAIGE MASON

Recommend

Be the first of your friends to recommend this.

Tweet

0

Good food lovers Vikki Leng, Rod Hourigan, Kirsty Hunt, Caroline Westmore and Ruth Ellis juggle some fresh Victorian pears. MARK WILSON N34SR80

HANGING Rock will play host to a hungry horde of foodies this Sunday with the return of the Harvest Picnic.

The annual celebration of all things food has attracted 87 boutique food and wine businesses from near and far that will showcase their flavours to a crowd in the thousands.

Executive officer Kirsty Hunt said the day will be packed with flavoursome delights, including Belgium chocolate and vanilla bean cream desserts, duck and wild mushroom risotto, paella and freshly caught calamari.

Australian chefs Stefano de Pieri, Travis McAuley and Jake Nicolson will be running food demonstrations, while chocolate lovers will be in heaven when Samantha Bakker whips up desserts.

Picnic-goers can also enjoy music from Vika and Linda Bull, Jugularity and Combo la Revelacion.

Tickets and information: harvestpicnic.com.au