

Client: Harvest Picnic Foundation

Media outlet: The Daily Addict

Date: 21 February 2011

Pg: Events page

Circulation: 10,000 subscribers

dailyAddict

Melbourne Issue 195, Monday 21 February 2011

Subscribe » Email a friend »

Picnic at Hanging Rock

Live out the film (minus the disappearances)

This iconic film made in 1975 by Peter Weir made such an impact that it's stranger than fiction story has become Australian folklore. There's definitely an eerie atmosphere when you visit "the rock", however, it's such a unique and unusual story, that a visit there is a must.

Give into curiosity and re-live the experience at The Age Harvest Picnic at Hanging Rock on Sunday 27 February. If you've ever visited the sister picnic at Werribee Park, you'll understand what a great day out it is. Celebrating Victorian food and wine with over 100 local producers from around the area, you'll be able to taste, drink and enjoy the stunning surrounds and take in the backdrop of "the rock."

As if you needed more reasons, there's also cooking demonstrations from Jake Nicolson of Circa, Travis McAuley of Hellenic Republic, Samanta Bakker of Koko Black and musical entertainment from Linda and Vika Bull, Combo la Revelacion and Under the Apple Tree.

We suggest bringing your mobile phone, just in case you do get lost in the rocks (pretty sure there wasn't mobiles in 1975 which would have solved the mystery fairly quickly!)

The Age Spring Harvest Picnic at Hanging Rock

Sunday 27 February 2011 9am – 5pm

Hanging Rock Reserve, South Rock Road, Hanging Rock

$20 Adults, $15 Concession, Children under 15 are free

KV

Looking for more similar stories? Try these:
Melbourne Food and Wine Festival